ARRS is the first and oldest radiology society in the United States. It is dedicated to the goal of the advancement of medicine through the science of radiology and its allied sciences. Its monthly journal, the American Journal of Roentgenology (AJR) is a highly respected peer-reviewed journal with a worldwide circulation of more than 23,000 and an average monthly online usage of 1 million.* For more than 110 years, the AJR has been recognized as one of the best specialty journals in the world. It is published for the physician and scientist interested in general radiology, sonography, CT, MRI, nuclear medicine, interventional radiology, women's imaging, and other diagnostic and medical imaging techniques and procedures.

Each issue of the AJR includes original research articles, reviews, clinical perspectives, technical innovations, invited articles, and commentaries with unique content-focused areas. The highlighted section provides a special opportunity for advertisers to tie in their marketing message (see the AJR Editorial Calendar below). In addition, the journal provides articles offering Continuing Medical Education and Self-Assessment credit, free to ARRS members.

The following opportunities are available for advertising with the ARRS:
- Print AJR
- Online Banner AJR
- Online Classified Advertising and the Career Center
- Corporate Article Reprints
- InPractice
- Annual Meeting Exhibitor Opportunity

Reproduction Requirements

Digital: Files can be accepted in Press Ready PDF, TIFF, or EPS formats. Contact publisher for additional specifications.

We recommend that an accurate digital proof be sent separately for color management.* Digital proofs can be requested at the cost of $15 (plus shipping). If a color proof is not supplied with the digital file, color fidelity cannot be guaranteed by our printer. ARRS cannot be held liable for printing problems as a result.

*PLEASE NOTE: Publisher is not responsible for the color accuracy of your ad without an accurate digital color proof.

AJR Web Banner Advertising

More than 50 years of research articles from the AJR are posted online at www.ajronline.org. Post your banner where radiologists and others worldwide will see it immediately. Metrics for banner ads are provided to advertisers at no extra cost. Please inquire about our agency discount.

Corporate Article Reprints

The AJR offers high-quality reprints of any article published. Reprints function as marketing support materials for mission-specific topics, for cited products, or for services. They can be useful for distribution to students, to conference attendees, to current and potential customers and clients, to shareholders, and others. Electronic reprints are also available. This option provides your company with the flexibility to e-mail articles directly to your customers or to drive them to your website with an article link. Contact us at reprintsAJR@arrs.org.

Online Classified Advertising Through the ARRS Career Center
ARRS offers online posting of your job in the ARRS Career Center. The Center offers upgrade options, a searchable resume database, and expanded exposure through the National Healthcare Career Network. Visit www.arrs.org/Jobs/. For assistance, call 888-491-8833, select menu option 4, and input 1940# to talk with a customer service representative. You may also e-mail careercenter@arrs.org.

InPractice
The ARRS quarterly magazine InPractice provides the latest in radiology news and advice. Each issue focuses on subjects essential to the clinical and business aspects of your practice. It mails to more than 20,000 ARRS medical imaging physician and scientist members and is accessible at no charge on the ARRS website. Each issue averages 24 full-color pages. Rates are $800 for one full-page display ad. Please contact communications@arrs.org for additional information regarding specifications and advertising submission dates.
